NASRO - Adolescent Mental Health Training for School Resource Officers (AMHT-SRO). AMHT-SRO is a 1.5-day training course designed to help school resource officers and school personnel to better identify and respond to students who are suspected of having a mental health need. It was developed by the National Center for Mental Health and Juvenile Justice (NCMHJJ) at Policy Research Associates, with support from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation. The AMHT-SRO is intended to help school resource officers and other school professionals develop the critical skills and capacity for appropriately responding to the many predictable behavior issues that are typically observed among adolescents with mental health problems.
